Dear

You don't mean to overlook your 1983 dues, do you? We certainly hope not, because your financial support and your labors are needed annually for much more than the December Candlelight Tour, as important as that is.

The tour profits Riddick's Folly, our primary commitment, however, we have another important program to develop: collection and archives in the soon-to-be-realized Society headquarters in the mansion. We shall need furniture/equipment suitable for displays and supplies for cataloguing and storage.

By the way, we are changing our fiscal year. If you pay dues now, renewal will not be called for until June 1984. Please keep your name on the mailing list so that you will be informed about a very special meeting in May.

Thanks for your consideration.

Sincerely yours,

Harriet C. Naismith
